25X1C 1. Sen. Williams (R., Dela.) called the Director's office and requested that either the Director or his assistant call him back today to tell the Senator what we knew about the activities of [REDACTED]

25X1A [REDACTED] After getting together the necessary information from [REDACTED] of the Logistics Office, we called Miss Lenhart of Sen. Williams' office to make an appointment to brief the Senator on the background of the case. Miss Lenhart stated that Senator Williams was out of town until Wednesday, 16 February, which date would apparently be time enough to brief the Senator.

25X1A 2. Miss Zimmerman, of the office of Senator Eastland (D., Miss.) called either the Security or Personnel Office to urge the immediate hiring of [REDACTED] who is [REDACTED] being RIFed as an investigator with the Civil Service Commission. [REDACTED]

25X1A [REDACTED] of Security called me to say that we had interviewed many of the RIFed CSC investigators and had employed several of them, of which fact [REDACTED] was aware. The latter had complained to the Senator that we had taken others but not him and had told him we had no suitable vacancy. [REDACTED]

25X1 making background investigations. I told Miss Zimmerman that clearance of employees would take a minimum of 90 days, which was a longer gap of unemployment than [REDACTED] desired, and that unfortunately while we had taken a few of the CSC investigators who had been RIFed, we had virtually no vacancies left at the time we considered [REDACTED] However, we would be glad to reconsider his case as future vacancies presented themselves. She was completely satisfied with the explanation, and presumably will not trouble us further.
